WEDDING, EVENT PLANNERS, CONTRACTORS AND PORTABLE TOILET SERVICE PROVIDERS:

Portable Chemical Toilets may be used temporarily in connection with the construction of a building or other structure during the period of such construction or in connection with the repair of a failed wastewater treatment system or upon application to the District for a special event. Upon filing of a temporary toilet permit application and payment of the prescribed fee, $50/toilet, a permit for such a device serving a temporary use may be issued provided that the device will be provided by and pumped and maintained by a person licensed by the County of Marin pursuant to 25000 et seq. of the “Health and Safety Code” and Chapter 4.07.070 of the District’s Title IV “Onsite Wastewater Management Code.”

The toilet(s) shall be placed on the property where the event is taking place. The toilet(s) shall be locked before the start of the event and after completion of the event. Violation of these codes is a misdemeanor and punishable by a $1,000 fine. Please call (415) 868-1333 if you have any questions.
